

Social Problems Presentation Rubric

|                    | 0  | 1  | 2  | Points |
|--------------------|--|--|--|--------|
| Claim       | A clear claim was not made.  | A clear claim was made with regard to the problem OR the solution             | A clear claim was made with regard to the problem AND the solution  |        |
| Research    | Any claim made was not supported by the research                         | Some research was used to support the claim. Validity may be questionable.           | Sound and valid research was used to support the claim   |        |
| Warrant     | No warrant was made for if or why an issue is a problem.                 | A warrant was offered to support that a given issue was, or was not a social problem | A warrant was offered to support that a given issue was or was not a social problem and potential conflicting claims and warrants were renounced |        |
| Innovation  | No real perspective was given on the problem                             | The standard perspective on a social problem was accepted with cause                 | An innovative perspective or understanding of the given problem was offered and supported  |        |
| Presenation | No presentation was given or the presentation was clearly under prepared | Presentation was acceptable, but not particularly memorable                          | Great effort was clearly given to make a memorable and potent presentation   |        |
| Total       |  |  |  |        |