

Social Problems Project Rubric

	10 Points	8 Points (+/-1 discretionary)	5 points (+/-1 discretionary)	3 Points (+/-1 discretionary)	0 Points
Comprehensive	All steps are addressed	Most of the Steps are adequately addressed	About half of the steps are adequately addressed, or all steps are addressed, but inadequately	Less than half of the steps are adequately addressed, or some steps are addressed, but not adequately	None of the steps are addressed.
Research	Project is supported with significant statistical and case study (typifying examples) from legitimate academic sources and/or methods	Project is supported with both statistical and case study research using mostly legitimate sources and/or methods	Project is supported with legitimate statistical or case study sources and/or methods	Project is supported with some statistical or case study research of questionable legitimacy.	No legitimate research is apparent in this project.
Claims Making (Analysis)	Project is supported using significant analysis, using a social constructionist (claims making) approach and offers a significant cause/effect and/or comparative analysis.	Project is supported using a social constructionist (claims making) analysis or a significant cause/effect and/or comparative analysis.	Some meaningful analysis is offered but not explored in depth.	Little analysis is offered.	No analysis level exploration is evident.
Creative	The project demonstrates outside of the box thinking in treatment and form. A high level of creativity and craft is demonstrated	The project shows some outside of the box thinking in treatment or form. An attention to craft is evident.	The project is well presented, though using standard format. Some effort in outside of the box thinking is demonstrated.	Little thought or attention to craft is offered in presenting the project.	A zero will not be given for creativity.
On time	The project was turned in on time.		The project was turned in late, but is of high quality (at least 30 pts from the variables above)		The project was not turned in on time.